

Bucks Ambassadors' Enterprise Awards 2010

The Gala Dinner and Awards Ceremony was held at the Crowne Plaza in Marlow on Thursday 11th February. Over 230 guests attended the event which was an excellent showcase for the outstanding businesses located in Buckinghamshire, the 'Entrepreneurial Heart of Britain'.

Damon Hill, President of the BRDC, was the Guest Speaker, but was delighted to receive a surprise Award for BRDC and Silverstone's contribution to the economy of Buckinghamshire. Councillor Martin Tett presented the trophy for 'Economic Impact' on behalf of Bucks Economic & Learning Partnership.

Damon said "Silverstone is a beacon for British entrepreneurship and industry and the British Grand Prix attracts global audiences, it provides a huge economic boost and I'm pleased it's been recognised."

Bucks Economic & Learning Partnership organised and managed both the Awards and the glittering ceremony to mark the achievements of local companies in the County.

The Winners for 2010 are

Category and Sponsor	Winner
Enterprising Educator of the Year Buckinghamshire County Council	open4business at Bucks New University HIGH WYCOMBE
Small Enterprise of the Year Business Link	Smile Design Dental Practice WENDOVER
Innovative Enterprise Bucks New University	Mediplus HIGH WYCOMBE
Large Enterprise of the Year Aylesbury Vale Advantage	Peros HIGH WYCOMBE
Young Entrepreneur of the Year Clarenco	Peter Hoare (Hocus Products) BOURNE END
Corporate Social Responsibility GE Healthcare	John Lewis High Wycombe HIGH WYCOMBE
International Trader UK Trade and Investment	Mediplus HIGH WYCOMBE
Entrepreneur of the Year Aylesbury Vale District Council	Dave Breith (O-bit Telecom) HIGH WYCOMBE
Economic Impact Bucks Economic and Learning Partnership	BRDC and Silverstone
5 Star Outstanding Contribution Buckinghamshire County Council	Adrian Shooter - Chiltern Railways

For details of how to enter the 2011 awards contact Bucks Economic & Learning Partnership on 01296-383808 www.belp.co.uk or www.buckinghamshire-ambassadors.gov.uk